Friday, July 15th is the feast of

Saint Bonaventure

He played an important role in both the medieval Church and the history of the Franciscan Order. A senior faculty member at the University of Paris, he captured the hearts of his students his love for Jesus and the Church. Like his model, Saint Francis, Jesus was the center of everything—his teaching, his administration, his writing, and his life.

He received the name Bonaventure when he became a Franciscan at the age of 22. While Saint Francis died about five years after the saint's birth, he is credited with healing Bonaventure as a boy of a serious illness.

His teaching career came to a halt when the Friars elected him to serve as their General Minister. He organized the Friars around the vision and insights of Saint Francis. Bonaventure managed to unite the pastoral, practical aspects of life with the doctrines of the Church.

Pope Gregory X created him a Cardinal and appointed him bishop of Albano. But a little over a year later, he died suddenly on July 15, 1274. Saint Bonaventure left behind a structured and renewed Franciscan Order and a body of work all of which glorifies his major love—Jesus.
