Thursday, August 24th is the feast of
Saint Bartholomew, the Apostle

In Saint John's Gospel, Bartholomew is known by the name Nathaniel. From Cana in Galilee, he was one of the first disciples called by the Lord. On that initial meeting Jesus uttered the glorious compliment: "Behold, an Israelite indeed in whom there is no guile!" After the Resurrection he was one of the few apostles who witnessed the appearance of the risen Savior on the sea of Galilee. (Jn 21:2) Following the Ascension, he preached in Greater Armenia and was martyred there. While still alive, his skin was torn from his body. The Armenians honor him as the apostle of their nation. Concerning the fate of his relics, the Martyrology says: "His holy body was first taken to the island of Lipari (north of Sicily), then to Benevento, and finally to Rome on an island in the Tiber where it is honored by the faithful with pious devotion."

Thanks to Bartholomew's apostolic efforts in Armenia, the faith spread throughout the land, and in 302, Saint Gregory the Illuminator baptized the king of Armenia, Dertad the Great, along with many of his followers. As he was the first ruler to embrace Christianity for his nation, the Armenians proudly claim they were the first Christian state.
