Saint Peter Claver

Peter Claver was born in Catalonia, Spain in 1581. He joined the Society of Jesus (Jesuits), and by 1615 Peter finished his studies and was ordained a priest in Cartagena. When he made his final vows, he added a personal one: Peter, slave of the slaves for ever. Cartagena was the principal slave market for the New World. Thousands were brought there, herded into warehouses and auctioned to the highest bidder. Captured in Africa, these enslaved people were chained and crammed into the lower holds of ships designed to hold 100-200, but holding 600-800. Their treatment was so inhumane that a third died in the sea journey.

It was to them that Peter ministered. He met each slave ship as it arrived, going to the warehouses and bringing food, water, medicine, and clothing, for, as he said “We must speak to them with our hands, before we try to speak to them with our lips.” But most of all, he brought them God. While nursing them back to health, he would teach them of Christ, explain to them that they were loved by God more than they were abused by man, and that evil outraged God. He offered their only consolation: hope in the promises of God. He baptized nearly 300,000. After 27 years of devotion to the slaves, he died on September 8, 1654.
