Saint Francis de Sales

Tues., Jan. 24 (new calendar)—Sun., Jan. 29 (old calendar)

Francis was born on August 21, 1567, and ordained to the priesthood in 1593. From 1594 to 1598 he labored at the difficult and dangerous task of preaching in the Chablais region, which had been ravaged by Protestantism, and effected the return of some 70,000 souls to the Catholic faith. In 1602, he became bishop of Geneva. His zeal for souls is attested in 21,000 extant letters and 4,000 sermons. His ardent love of God and souls, his great kindness, rare wisdom and sure teaching made Saint Francis exceptionally influential in bringing about conversions and in guiding souls in the spiritual life. He is the author of Treatise on the Love of God and Introduction to the Devout Life. Saint Francis died at Lyons in 1622.

Most widely known is the saint's Introduction to the Devout Life, which, with the Imitation of Christ, is rightly considered the finest outline of Christian perfection. Francis' Introduction proves to the world that true piety makes persons amiable, lovable and happy. A renowned and holy friendship existed between him and Saint Jane Frances de Chantal. In cooperation with her, he founded the Visitation Nuns in 1610. Out of love for his own poor diocese, he refused opportunities for advancement, including the cardinalate. In recognition of the Introduction and his other writings, Francis has been declared a doctor of the Church. He was also declared patron of the Diocese of Wilmington.

No Daily Masses: February 6–10

Every other year, the priests of the diocese go away together for a series of meetings with the Bishop for continuing formation. As all the priests are away at the same time this year, it is very difficult to find other priests to cover our Masses. So, Fathers McQuaide and Markellos will take the intentions with them from Monday, February 6th to Friday the 10th. Please pray for our priests, as they pray for you! Our schedule will return to normal Saturday, February 11th.
