Tuesday, October 2nd is the feast of the Guardian Angels

The idea that each soul has assigned to it a personal guardian angel has been long accepted by the Church and is a truth of our faith. Our Lord said, "See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that their angels in heaven always look upon the face of my heavenly Father." (Mt. 18:10) From our birth until our death, man is surrounded by the protection and intercession of angels, particularly our guardian angel. The Church thanks God for our helpers, the angels, particularly on this feast day. Today's feast appeared in Spain during the sixteenth century.
