Week 7 — Wednesday, April 17

Not Simply a Moment

We can speak of salvation in terms of whether or not we will go to Heaven—something that is a future reality. We can also speak of a past time when we turned from sin and began living for Christ, or the date of our baptism. This week, Dr. Barber will examine how Scripture speaks of salvation as something that entails the past, present, and future.

Join us at 1 pm in the Cathedral Chapel or at 6:30 pm in Saint Patrick's Hall.

Tuesday, April 16th is the feast of Saint Bernadette Soubirous

Marie Bernarde 'Bernadette' Soubirous was the eldest child of an impoverished miller. At the age of fourteen, between 11 February and 16 July 1858, in a shallow cave on the bank of the river Gave, she had a series of remarkable experiences. On eighteen occasions she saw a very young and beautiful lady, who made various requests and communications to her, pointing out a forgotten spring of water and enjoining prayer and penitence. The lady eventually identified herself as the Virgin Mary, under the title of 'the Immaculate Conception.'

For some years she suffered greatly from the suspicious disbelief of some; these trials she bore with impressive patience and dignity. In 1866 she was admitted to the convent of the Sisters of Charity at Nevers. There, she died at the age of thirty-five. The events of 1858 resulted in Lourdes becoming one of the greatest pilgrim shrines in the history of Christendom. But Saint Bernadette took no part in these developments; nor was it for her visions that she was canonized, but for the humble simplicity and religious trust that characterized her whole life.
