Week 6 — Wednesday, April 10

Not a Spectator Sport

As we continue our study, we look at how grace moves us to cooperate and participate in the work God is doing in us. What role does good works play in our standing with God and our transformation as his sons and daughters? Relying heavily on Jesus's own teachings, this week we will see that God intends for us to make good use of the grace he gives us.

Join us at 1 pm in the Cathedral Chapel or at 6:30 pm in Saint Patrick's Hall.

Thursday, April 11th is the feast of Saint Stanislaus of Krakow

Born in 1030 and educated at Gnesen and Paris, he was ordained to the priesthood. Upon the death of the bishop of Cracow, he was nominated bishop of the diocese.

Stanislaus had opposed King Boleslaus II for his tyrannical ways and confronted him for his immoral behavior. No one seemed willing to face the king from a fear of his rage, but Stanislaus boldly went to the king and threatened excommunication if he did not change his ways. Furious, the king promised revenge on the bishop.

At first the king commanded his soldiers to kill the bishop when he was celebrating Mass at St. Michael's chapel in Cracow, but the soldiers refused, fearing to bring down upon themselves the wrath of God. Undeterred, the king himself entered the church, drew his sword, and killed the bishop, ordering his soldiers to dismember the body.

Pope Gregory VII placed the country under interdict and Boleslaus fell from power, fleeing to Hungary, where he entered the monastery of Osiak to do penance for his crime. Stanislaus was canonized by Pope Innocent IV in 1253.
